MY POINT OF VIEW

A WARM welcome to Billy Bremner and his Doncaster Rovers side, who are currently in the Fourth Division's leading group and looking very strong indeed. They lost at home on Saturday to Lincoln City, but their away form has been top class, so we will certainly have our work cut out tonight.

Rochdale Disaster

After our fine 4-1 win over Halifax, our game at Spotland turned out to be nothing short of disaster. It was most certainly "after the Lord Mayor's Show" and it was in my opinion our worst ever game in League Football. Take away two or three half decent performances and there was very little left. Sometimes I get upset at unfair criticisms, but, in this instance, I feel we have a case to answer, and believe me, we will have to work very hard to see it doesn't happen again.

Transfer Request

By the time you read these notes, you will have read in the Press that ever-present Tommy Gore has asked for a move, and his request has been granted. Tommy is not willing to play in a position which I feel best suits the needs of Wigan Athletic, and one that proved so successful last year.

Hoping for better things, tonight.

GREAT NAMES FROM THE PAST

BY HAROLD ASHURST

TODAY'S personality in the column is still working very hard for the club, but is, nevertheless, a "great name from the past" when one remembers his playing career with Latics and a host of other clubs. He is Duncan Colquhoun, former outside right and now working with the club voluntarily as physiotherapist.

Dunc is as popular with today's players as he was with his team-mates when he joined that great Latics team which Charlie Spencer had formed.

Dunc was on trial with Hibernian, when he was told that Wigan Athletic were interested in him. He came down to Springfield Park and was offered a month's trial. He refused and according to Dunc: "I was on my way out of the door, when I met the club centre half, a lad by the name of Hancock with whom I had been at Millwall. He asked what was going on, and, when I told him, he went in to see Charlie Spencer. I don't know what he said, but the manager then came out of his office and offered me a contract."

He stayed at Latics for a few seasons before club financial problems at the time forced his transfer to Bristol City. He then went to Southport and moved on to Bradford City, in 1939, on the same day that war broke out, although Dunc denies his move had anything to do with that!

When the war started League Football was temporarily disrupted, and during the next six years Dunc guested for a number of clubs in friendly matches.

In the meantime Dunc met and married his wife, Molly, a local Cotton Queen, and he returned to Latics after the war as trainer-coach to the team that won the Lancashire Combination Championship.

He has also been manager at Latics for a short time, taking over the reins early in 1970 before the arrival of Gordon Milne. In fact, in his 45 years with the club, Dunc admits: "I have done a bit of everything."

When his full-time professional playing career ended, Dunc, who lives at Pemberton, joined Heinz at Kitt Green and he worked there for 32 years until his retirement earlier this year.

ALTHOUGH we suffered a defeat when we visited Shrewsbury Town for the first time last week, under the circumstances there were one or two pleasing features.

Before we knew what had hit us, we found ourselves 0-3 down after twenty minutes, as a very bright Shrewsbury side really zipped the ball about and punished us severely for three sloppy mistakes.

We managed to hold on until half time, when the break gave us a chance to sort a few things out and hopefully do better in the second half.

The second half was where the "pleasing features" showed themselves. I introduced substitute Willie Gray, a young colt of a central defender at half time in a hope of combating their aerial supremacy of the first half, and the Scottish youngster did not let me down.

Maurice Whittle showed his return to fitness by setting a fine example, and assisted by Pop Freeman, the two of them made their presence felt as we gradually clawed our way back into the game.

A super headed goal from Jim Oliver was followed by a classic Davie Glenn effort, as he latched on to a perfect through ball from George McAllister to make the score 2-3.

Up to this point we had got what we deserved, because much character and extra effort had been put in to get us back in with a chance, and it seemed we were set for a well-earned point at least, as we battered away at the Shrewsbury goal. Unfortunately, it was not to be. Goalkeeper Alan Harrison, a little rusty after not playing for many months due to the form of John Brown and Bob Ward, dithered over a cross and the ball barely had enough pace to cross the line for a sickening final goal, which put the game beyond our reach.

I PROMISED in the last issue of our programme that I would write more of our plans to raise funds for the Springfield Park Community Sports Facility. I am pleased to let you know that we are actively working at ways and means of financing this exciting new project.

Pride of place must go to the Chairman's initiative in deciding to launch a series of Sportmen's Dinners. The first of these special occasions will take place at Tiffany's on Thursday, November 20th, 1980, when comedian Ivor Davies will provide the laughs for our "Tribute to Bill Shankly Night", with "Shanks" and his good friend, Bobby Charlton, adding their own anecdotes and reminiscences for good measure. A good meal, good company, and lively repartee should make this evening the bargain of the year at a cost of £10. per person. Black ties will be worn! Club President Mr Arthur Horrocks is currently involved with setting up the evening with the Tiffany's management, and tickets should be obtainable from the Commercial Department during normal office hours from Monday, 13th October. Each table will seat ten diners, so any local business organisation planning to organise a special night out for its staff is asked to make an early decision about booking. All cheques should be made payable to the Wigan Athletic Football Club Limited and be endorsed with the name of the company or individual in whose name the booking is made.

Lack of space prevents me from going on at length about other special events in the offing, but in Saturday's programme, I intend to give details of the Commercial Department's "Supporters' Night Out", to be held on Wednesday, 19th November, and the "Christmas Cracker Draw 1980". Don't miss our next instalment! I am delighted to draw the attention of our supporters to the sponsoring of tonight's game by Dingle Belles, of Parliament Street, UpHolland (Telephone 962-624444), Car Accessory Shop of the Year. Specialists in Exhaust Systems, you can save pounds by buying from Dingle Belles. For all your motoring needs, pay an early visit to their premises at UpHolland, St. Helens and, in the near future, Ormskirk. We are also pleased to acknowledge the donation of tonight's match ball by J. Fairhurst & Son, Solid Fuel Suppliers and Haulage and Coach Operators. This reliable family firm operating from 368, Warrington Road, Goose Green, Wigan, (Telephone Wigan 42185), will treat all your enquiries with the efficiency which they have shown in providing coach transport for our second team.

Enjoy tonight's game,

Jack Sudworth Commercial Manager.

Springfield Park, Wigan. 6th October, 1980.

Dear Readers,

For the first time I find that we have attracted no contributor to our Letterbox feature, so, this issue, I hope you will excuse a personal expression of opinion.

It was brought to my notice that, following the defeat at Mansfield, one of our players came in for quite a verbal going-over by fans wishing to make him aware of their feelings. Last Saturday, at Rochdale, it was my turn to take some stick after the game. After several challenging statements, I was forced to inform the supporters involved, that, as an employee of the club, I could not offer a comment.

I am sure I can speak for Eric Jones, Ian McNeill, as well as myself, when I declare that we are all prepared, at the right time, to discuss the operations for which we have accepted responsibility — administration, team and commercial activities respectively. Talking to us, you may agree or disagree with our points of view, but do not expect us to accept verbal assaults on individual staff members employed by the club, whatever your own personal feelings and disappointments. At the end of the day, Eric, Ian and myself are answerable to the Directors who bear the overall responsibility for the club's welfare and its day-by-day operations. So, please, next time you feel like voicing your opinion, don't take it out on employees who cannot be expected to comment, but tackle the "Head of Department" concerned. If you still cannot obtain satisfaction, no one can deny you the right, as paying customers, to take your complaint right to the top, but, on the way, do be prepared to listen to reason. Whatever the issue, it is not always possible to categorise items quite simply as "black" or "white", or to be quite as positive in taking action as you might sometimes think.

Meanwhile, please support your team and this feature,

All best wishes,
Jack Sudworth, Commercial Manager.

WRITTEN QUOTATIONS ON REQUEST

A VERY good evening to our many members and friends, and again from the Staff and Committee at the Club, - welcome to Springfield Park.

We had a telephone call a few days ago from Liverpool A.F.C. Supporters Club, inviting our quiz-team to play a challenge match at Anfield, with a view to a return game at Springfield Park in a few weeks time. I am delighted to say that Michael Moss, the originator of our great run in the Radio Manchester Quiz, accepted the challenge. The date has been arranged at Anfield for Friday, October 17th, at 8.30 p.m. It was incredible to listen to the questions the 'memory-men' had to answer on their way through the Rothmans contest. Would you know which present Fourth Division team were beaten in the 1961-1962 League Cup Final? That was just a typical teaser.

On Thursday evening, the 27th November, we have arranged a full evening's entertainment by the Wigan Metropolitan Youth Brass Band. I have mentioned before in our programme notes, that both the stage and brass bands are leaving in February, 1981, for a tour of the U.S.A. We have heard, and probably you have heard, very good reports of the students' band performances, from a variety of venues in and around Wigan. Tickets will be available by early next week, and we hope we can count on your support, as the aim is to donate to the Education Authorities' Tour Fund.

More details later, and also of another big night out in the club around mid-November, to be promoted by our friends from the Commercial Department.

Your sincerely,

Peter Woods.

WHILE the freedom of contract would appear to be causing problems for some players, at least one Fourth Division club is benefitting from a dispute between one star and his club. Unable to agree terms with his club, Sunderland, Barry Sidall last week agreed to a loan move to neighbours Darlington and kept a clean sheet in the Quakers' win at Hereford. Incidentally, a lot of people have been puzzled by the virtual disappearance of the loan system. In fact, only 'keepers are now allowed to take part in such a deal.

Having had Roy McFarland, Mike Docherty and, reportedly, Ian Greaves turn down the manager's job at Tranmere, the Rovers board last Thursday appointed former Everton star Bryan Hamilton to replace former boss Johnny King. An Irish international, Hamilton, with 50 caps to his name, couldn't have wished for a better start to his managerial career as his side beat Wimbledon the very next day 3-0.

Still on the managerial front, Northampton Town, having a nightmare season, have brought former manager Bill Dodgin back from Brentford in a bid to resolve the club's results crisis. Dodgin takes over as manager from Clive Walker who reverts to trainer-coach at his own request.

Bradford City have taken the unusual step of appointing a teenager as their captain. Promising centre back, Peter Jackson, who is only 19, took over his duties last weekend in the 2-2 draw with Crewe Alexandra. Bottom side Halifax Town, desperate to add some firepower to their blunted attack, tried to sign Walsall striker Steve Waddington. Once again manager George Kirby's efforts ended in failure, when the player rejected the move to The Shay.

While attendances continue to go up and down like a yo-yo, it seems Doncaster Rovers have set the Division Four standard. Last weekend their game with leaders Lincoln City attracted a season's high of 9,693. Sadly for their manager Billy Bremner, announced the division's manager of the month only hours earlier, his side failed to produce the goods and were beaten by an 83rd minute Gordon Hobson goal.

Leading scorers to date: 11-Cooke (Peterborough United), 10-Lumby (Tranmere Rovers), 9-Harford (Lincoln City), 8-Brodie (Aldershot) Johnson (Bury).

WE HAVE recently received a letter from Mr. Gordon Pearce, the founder-organiser of "The Ninety-Two Club", informing us that in June, 1978, the club was formed to recognise the achievement of anyone connected with soccer who has attended each of the ninety-two Football League grounds for first team matches. An "associate" member category was created for those football followers who had already completed more than seventy visits and intended to complete their remaining visits in the foreseeable future.

One such follower, Chris. Mills, of 179 Ross Road, South Norwood, London SE25 6TN, visited Wigan on the 20th September, 1980, to watch the Wigan Athletic -v- Bury game, thus becoming the 105th member of the club to visit his 92nd ground. We wish to place on record our admiration for the persistence shown by Chris. Mills in achieving his objective. Any Wigan Athletic supporter interested in joining "The Ninety-Two Club", is asked to contact Gordon Pearce at 104 Gilda Crescent, Whitchurch, Bristol BS14 9LD.

At the beginning of September, we summarised the early results from seasons 1978-1979, 1979-1980 and the current season. In response to several requests from fans wishing to keep abreast of the up-to-date comparative figures, we supply the following details,

Season 1978-1979—After ten games: won three, drawn one, lost six, for nine goals, against fourteen goals, seven points, League Position eighteenth.

Season 1979-1980—After ten games: won four, drawn one, lost five, for seventeen goals, against twenty goals, nine points, League Position fifteenth.

Season 1980-1981—After ten games: won five, drawn none, lost five, for eleven goals, against sixteen goals, ten points, League Position seventeenth.

Consequently, in spite of our early disappointments, we are already one point better off than last season at the same stage. With one game in hand over all other clubs but Northampton Town, it could be argued that, had that game been played and won, our team would be occupying seventh position in the current league table.

We are pleased to draw the attention of our supporters to the fact that the week 11th-18th October, has been designated "National Foster Care Week". The Wigan Athletic Football Club has promised the National Foster Care Association space in next Saturday's match programme for an advertisement and a collection will also be taken on behalf of the Association at the Peterborough United game. Please give generously in support of this worthy organisation.

The Chairman's Column

I AM delighted to welcome the Doncaster Rovers Football Club to Springfield Park tonight. I am particularly looking forward to meeting my old friend Tony Phillips, with whom I have spent many happy hours. Our game against Billy Bremner's side could be one of our most difficult of the season.

I cannot let the game at Rochdale go by without stating that, never again, do I wish to sit through a game like that at Spotland last Saturday. The display was totally unacceptable. Quite frankly, the difference was that Rochdale wanted to win the game, whereas we didn't just seem to care. I was quite disgusted and thoroughly ashamed at the performance. When I think of the size of our professional playing staff and the size of our weekly wage bill, and what we are getting in return - it is just not on! No one can expect to win every time, but to lose three goals at Darlington, Mansfield and Rochdale, and to only scrape home by a last minute goal at Halifax, not to mention the lack of fight and effort displayed by some of our players, leaves us with a very disturbing state of affairs.

I feel sorry for our supporters, all good, honest, hard-working people, who, after a full week's hard graft, look forward to a little bit of pleasure from their weekend's football. They are not getting value for money; we are not giving them a fair deal; and they deserve better.

I feel sorry for my directors, and our hard-pressed Commercial Department, who are all working very hard to bridge the massive deficiency between what the players' end product brings in at the "gate" and what it actually costs to keep the club viable.

I feel sorry for Ian McNeill - he deserves better too. I find him a one hundred per cent players' man. He argues for them, he protects them, he fights for wage increases for them, he seeks trips abroad for them to the sun, - well, Ian, you are getting your loyalty and efforts thrown right back into your face. A few of the players are giving very little in return; it seems to be a joy-ride.

I get no pleasure out of writing this way, but, quite honestly, I have had enough, the joy-ride is over, and I am spelling out my message to the players that I have always believed in a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. If players want the rewards that their privileged life-style affords them, they must at the very least, show that they are prepared to give the effort required. I am looking, from this moment on, for a very big improvement in attitude and results.

I hope we will all be able to enjoy tonight's game.

Yours sincerely,

Freddie Pye
